CONGRESSWOMAN SEWELL ANNOUNCES THAT PRESIDENT OBAMA DECLARES A MAJOR DISASTER IN THE STATE OF ALABAMA

Birmingham, Alabama – This evening, President Obama issued a major disaster declaration in the State of Alabama triggering immediate federal assistance for the people and communities affected by this week’s storms and tornadoes. On Wednesday, Congresswoman Sewell joined the Alabama delegation in sending a letter to President Obama urging him to declare a major disaster in the State of Alabama. She also joined the delegation in requesting individual assistance for families in certain counties that experienced property damage and/or loss.

“I am pleased that President Obama honored our request to declare a major disaster in the State of Alabama. I am also pleased that those families that experienced property damage or loss in Jefferson County will be eligible to apply for individual assistance from FEMA,” said Rep. Sewell. “Today, I took a tour through Bessemer with several state and local officials. It gave me the opportunity to witness firsthand the devastation which better helped me advocate for the declaration.”

CONGRESSWOMAN SEWELL EXPRESSES CONCERN OVER RECENT ALABAMA TORNADOES AND WORKS WITH ALABAMA DELEGATION TO OBTAIN FEDERAL ASSISTANCE

Washington, D.C.- Today, U.S. Congresswoman Terri A. Sewell (D-AL) released the following statement about recent tornadoes and severe weather that devastated the state of Alabama:

“This week, the State of Alabama has endured severe weather and parts of the 7th Congressional District were badly damaged by tornadoes. My thoughts and prayers are with the families affected by these terrible storms and tornadoes. Alabama is no stranger to such destruction and I know that our compassion for our neighbors and resilient spirit will see us through. I am always inspired by the strength and spirit that we Alabamians possess as we step forward to help our neighbors and communities during difficult times.

Today, I joined with the Alabama delegation in sending a letter to President Obama urging him to support Governor Robert Bentley’s request for an emergency declaration and immediate federal assistance. My office remains committed to working with local and state officials to get the financial and emergency assistance needed from FEMA, HUD, SBA and other federal agencies to assist in the clean-up, recovery and rebuilding efforts.

USDA Announces Funding to Spur Local and Regional Economic Growth in America's Rural Communities

WASHINGTON, May 1, 2014 – Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack today announced the availability of funding to promote long-term economic growth and community vitality in rural areas. With the announcement, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) invites applications for funding through three community and economic development programs administered by USDA Rural Development.

"USDA is committed to helping rural communities access the resources they need to implement strategies that will invigorate the economy, reduce poverty and enhance the quality of life in our small towns and rural areas for years to come," Vilsack said.

The announcement includes $30.6 million in zero-interest loans and $9.2 million in grants to establish revolving loan funds that finance business and economic development activities in rural areas. Applications for these funds will be accepted through the Rural Economic Development Loan and Grant \(REDLG\) Program. Rural utilities that are eligible for USDA financing under the Rural Electrification Act and have the capacity to serve as intermediary lenders may apply to USDA Rural Development to administer the funds locally for the benefit of specifically identified projects. These intermediaries re-lend REDLG funds at zero percent to assist with business startup and expansion, business technical assistance and job training, and community facilities projects that support economic development. Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis through USDA Rural Development State Offices and are evaluated for funding consideration monthly.

Through the Rural Business Opportunity Grant \(RBOG\) Program, USDA Rural Development is accepting competitive grant applications to improve economic conditions in designated Rural Economic Area Partnership Zones and for members of Native American tribes in rural areas. Government entities, nonprofit corporations, institutions of higher education, rural cooperatives and Native American tribes may apply for grants of up to $100,000. Funding may be used to support business incubators, feasibility studies and business plans, long-term strategic business planning, leadership and entrepreneurial training, and other related efforts. Just over $1.3 million is reserved for projects benefiting Native American communities. Another $919,820 is reserved for projects with Rural Economic Area Partnerships.

In addition, USDA announces the availability of two grants from funds appropriated for the Rural Business Enterprise Grant (RBEG) program: a $500,000 grant for rural transportation projects and a $250,000 grant for Federally Recognized Native American Tribes. Funds may be used to provide technical assistance and training to help rural communities improve passenger transportation services or facilities.

These USDA programs provide key support needed to create rural jobs and promote local and regional economic growth. For instance, the non-profit Ecotrust estimates that RBEG and RBOG funding for its FoodHub website is allowing it to connect more than 2,100 farmers, ranchers, fishermen, dairies and specialty producers to more buyers, distributors and industry suppliers. Between 2010 and 2012, the service reported helping producers in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Alaska and California increase full-time employment by 23 percent and part-time employment by 38 percent.

Application deadlines and details for all three programs will be available May 2 when the funding notices are published in the Federal Register.

President Obama's plan for rural America has brought about historic investment and resulted in stronger rural communities. Under the President's leadership, these investments in housing, community facilities, businesses and infrastructure have empowered rural America to continue leading the way – strengthening America's economy, small towns and rural communities. USDA's investments in rural communities support the rural way of life that stands as the backbone of our American values.

ATTENTION VETERANS:

FACT SHEET: Veterans Employment Center

The online Veterans Employment Center is the single federal source for Veterans looking for new career opportunities in the private and public sectors, as well as Service Members transitioning to the civilian workforce, military and Veteran spouses and dependents looking for employment opportunities, GI Bill beneficiaries transitioning from training to the job market and employers looking to connect with high quality applicants. It is the first interagency tool that brings together public and private job opportunities with resume building and other career tools currently offered on a variety of websites together in one place.

Through the online Veterans Employment Center, Veterans, transitioning Service Members and spouses are connected to high quality career choices by matching their identified skills with available public and private job opportunities. The site is built using an open application programming interface (API) to attract private sector innovation.

Veteran Applicant Resources:

- Quick public resume posting with an instant connection to thousands of public and private employers
- Target job search based on specific, high-demand career paths
- Single search for both public and private sector positions
- Military skills translator and resume generator
- Social media integration with popular bookmarking sites for saving job postings

Employer Resources:

- Access targeted feed of qualified resumes from Veteran applicants
- View reverse skills translation (military to civilian skills) for applicants
- Set Veterans hiring goals and track progress
- Connect to resources designed to help recruit and retain talented, Veteran employees

In connection with the First Lady and Dr. Biden's Joining Forces initiative, the Department of Veterans Affairs worked with the Departments of Defense, Labor, and Education, and the Office of Personnel Management to design and develop the site and incorporate features of existing online employment tools at each agency. The result is an upgrade to the existing Veterans Job Bank and an integrated solution connecting Veterans, transitioning Service Members and employers.

Employers, Veterans and transitioning Service Members deserve a single, authoritative source for connecting to each other. Now that the core tools and an integrated search function exist in one single location, each agency is engaged in minimizing duplication and redundancy of current sites and services.

The Veterans Employment Center can be found at: <https://www.ebenefits.va.gov/ebenefits/jobs>
