SCHOLARSHIPS INTERNSHIPS FELLOWSHIPS

Welcome to the Guide to Grants-Scholarship Edition!

I am honored to represent the 7th Congressional District of Alabama. It is my top priority to provide you with the information needed to ensure that every student has the resources needed to reach their God-given potential.

With the cost of college tuition at an all-time high, securing scholarships and other means of financial assistance is more important than ever before.

I am thrilled to provide information to students and parents, by identifying available scholarships, internships, and fellowships.

The Guide to Grants-Scholarship Edition is also a resource for institutions of higher education to provide financial opportunities for students, by submitting information to our grants department at Yolanda.clayton@mail.house.gov

This guide will include links to agencies and resources to help make your search for financial education assistance more successful.

Stay up to date with the latest information at <http://sewell.house.gov> Please continue to let us know when grants/scholarships are awarded, especially if you found the opportunities in the Guide to Grants.

For more information, please visit our website at <http://sewell.house.gov>. To subscribe to Guide to Grants, sign up on our website or call us at 205.254.1960.

NREI John R. Lewis Social Justice Policy Fellowship

The NREI John R. Lewis Social Justice Policy Fellowship is a Congressional Black Caucus Foundation, Inc. (CBCF) program designed to give young, Black professionals the opportunity to work in Congress and with the Foundation to address social justice and racial equity issues that affect the Black community. Distinguished by two six-month rotations, Social Justice Fellows are placed in the U.S. Congress with Congressional Black Caucus members and the CBCF's Center for Policy Analysis and Research (CPAR) for a total of 12 months.

Fellows produce social justice policy research and analysis on topics that include, but not limited to, criminal justice reform, education, community/economic development, health equity, and civil rights. While working in Congressional Black Caucus member offices, Fellows gain invaluable legislative experience as they engage in the development of public policy initiatives, attend briefings, conduct research, write speeches, and develop rapport with key leaders all in the areas of social justice. In the Center for Policy Analysis and Research, Fellows work under the NREI Director and in cooperation with other stakeholders to conduct policy analysis, research, and data collection with the goal to disseminate research findings and relevant information to advance NREI's mission. Fellows during their term may also organize social justice forums and brain trusts, serve as an expert in their field, and produce issue briefs, fact sheets and other publications related to social justice.
