SCHOLARSHIPS    INTERNSHIPS    FELLOWSHIPS

Welcome to the Guide to Grants-Scholarship Edition!

I am honored to represent the 7th Congressional District of Alabama. It is my top priority to provide you with the information needed to ensure that every student has the resources needed to reach their God-given potential.

With the cost of college tuition at an all-time high, securing scholarships and other means of financial assistance is more important than ever before.

I am thrilled to provide information to students and parents, by identifying available scholarships, internships, and fellowships.

The Guide to Grants-Scholarship Edition is also a resource for institutions of higher education to provide financial opportunities for students, by submitting information to our grants department @ Yolanda.clayton@mail.house.gov

This guide will include links to agencies and resources to help make your search for financial education assistance more successful.

Stay up to date with the latest information at <http://sewell.house.gov> Please continue to let us know when grants/scholarships are awarded, especially if you found the opportunities in the Guide to Grants.

For more information, please visit our website at <http://sewell.house.gov>. To subscribe to Guide to Grants, sign up on our website or call us at 205.254.1960.

Deadline: April 18, 2023

Corris Boyd Scholars Program

HCA is proud to sponsor the HCA Corris Boyd Scholars Program. This program was established in honor of a healthcare leader who dedicated his life to diversity and excellence in leadership – especially among people of color. The recipient will receive a $40,000 scholarship towards tuition and other expenses at the AUPHA full-member graduate school program of his or her choice. The award will be paid in four installments (August and December of the first year, then August and December of the second year). Students enrolled in accelerated programs will not receive the 2nd year installments until the dates noted above.

At the time of award, applicants must have applied and been accepted into an AUPHA Full Member master's degree program for start in Fall, but not before August 1st. Search the AUPHA Online Directory for eligible member programs. Under "Program Accreditation/Certification", select the box for "CAHME Accredited Graduate Programs". Scroll down the screen and select "Find a Program". Then scroll down the screen to see the list of eligible programs.

Applicants must be a full-time student of one of the following races: African American, American Indian/Alaska Native, Asian American, Hawaiian/Pacific Islander, Latino/Hispanic, Multiracial. Must have a minimum 3.0 GPA (out of 4.0) in undergraduate coursework and have US citizenship or permanent resident status. For more information, or to apply, please visit the scholarship provider's website.

Amount: $40,000

Gloria Barron Wilderness Society Scholarship

Graduate students meeting the eligibility requirements noted below may apply directly to The Wilderness Society. Applicants must be enrolled in an accredited graduate institution in North America, have strong academic qualifications and/or career goals focused on making a significant positive difference in the long-term protection of wilderness in the United States. Graduate students in natural resources management, law or policy programs are strongly encouraged to apply.

Research topics include restoration of the health and function of wilderness, management impacts on wildland, valuing wildlands ecosystems, connecting people to wildlands, and impacts of climate change. Additional funding will be provided to pay travel expenses for the recipient to work with staff members of The Wilderness Society on this project. The Society wishes to encourage the publication of this work in an academic journal or other appropriate medium and has additional funds to help cover expenses of publishing and publicizing the final paper. For more information or to apply, please visit the scholarship provider's website.

Amount: $25,000

Create Real Impact Contest

Time to get creative and speak out about the #1 killer of young people! The Create Real Impact Contest calls on students, ages 14-22, to showcase their solutions and strategies to stop the #1 killer of young people—car crashes caused by reckless and distracted driving. Students submit one entry into one of the four categories: creative writing, video, graphic design, or music. We have individual grand-prize winners in each category and the opportunity to win money through bonus points!

In addition to the individual winners, we have another exciting category for teachers and advisors: a distracted driving social media campaign. This is an opportunity for high school teachers and advisors to oversee student leaders' efforts in implementing a social media campaign around distracted driving. Review the rules, fill out the online registration form, start planning, and create a short video to showcase your campaign (projects can be developed through distance learning or in-person).

Amount: $10,000

Women in Transition Scholarship

The Women In Transition scholarship was designed for women who have become the primary source of support for themselves and their families and wish to return to school to obtain a degree in accounting. This is available to incoming or current freshmen, and women returning to school with a freshman status who demonstrate financial need. This scholarship is renewable upon a 3.0 GPA. Applicants must be female US citizens attending accredited US schools pursuing an accounting degree.

Applicants must demonstrate a commitment to the goal of pursuing a degree in accounting in preparation for a career as an accounting or finance professional, including evidence of continued commitment to this goal after receiving the award. In addition, an aptitude in accounting and business as evidenced by prior course work and/or work experience and clear evidence that goals and a plan for achieving those goals, both personal and professional, have been established.

NPG Graduate School Essay Scholarship

Each year, NPG offers a variety of Scholarship Contests for students across the country. Contestants are invited to answer a population-related challenge, with their own experience and insight guiding their ideas for a solution. Contest is open to graduate students. Winners will receive a designated scholarship amount, paid towards graduate tuition at the accredited college or university they attend.

Thanks to the generous support of NPG members and various foundations, we are able to provide this annual program to support the education of America's next generation of leaders. As we continue our mission to inform U.S. citizens and legislators regarding the damaging consequences of population growth, it is vital that we engage our nation's youngest citizens. Winners will receive a designated scholarship amount, paid towards undergraduate tuition at the accredited college or university they attend. ## AIGA Worldstudio Scholarships

AIGA Worldstudio Scholarships benefit underrepresented and economically disadvantaged students who are studying photography, illustration, and design disciplines in colleges and universities in the United States. Scholarships are awarded annually to encourage social and environmental responsibility and cultural awareness in the next generation of artists and designers.

Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents, pursuing an undergraduate or graduate degree in one of the following disciplines: graphic design, illustration, interactive design, or photography, and be enrolled at an accredited college or university in the United States for the upcoming school year as a full-time student. In making selections, jurors consider and prioritize quality of submitted work, financial need, underrepresented and BIPOC students, academic record, recommendations, and strength of written purpose statements. A minimum 2.0 GPA is required and financial need must be demonstrated via FAFSA. For more information or to apply, please visit the scholarship provider's website.

Amount: $5,000

ASID Legacy Scholarship for Graduate Students

The ASID Foundation Legacy Scholarship is open to students who are enrolled in or have been accepted for admission to a graduate-level interior design program at an accredited university. The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of academic accomplishment, creative achievement, and personal statement. Applicants must write an essay on the following subject: "As an interior designer, how will you embrace and advance the professional trend to positively impact health and well-being in your anticipated area of design practice?" For more information or to apply, please visit the scholarship provider's website.

Amount: $4,000

ASID Legacy Scholarship for Undergraduates

The ASID Legacy Scholarship is open to all students in their junior or senior year of undergraduate study enrolled in at least a three-year accredited program of interior design. The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of academic accomplishment, creative achievement, and personal statement. ## Create Real Impact Contest

Time to get creative and speak out about the #1 killer of young people! The Create Real Impact Contest calls on students, ages 14-22, to showcase their solutions and strategies to stop the #1 killer of young people—car crashes caused by reckless and distracted driving. Students submit one entry into one of the four categories: creative writing, video, graphic design, or music. We have individual grand-prize winners in each category and the opportunity to win money through bonus points!

In addition to the individual winners, we have another exciting category for teachers and advisors: a distracted driving social media campaign. This is an opportunity for high school teachers and advisors to oversee student leaders' efforts in implementing a social media campaign around distracted driving. Review the rules, fill out the online registration form, start planning, and create a short video to showcase your campaign (projects can be developed through distance learning or in-person).

The Prochnow Foundation Scholarship

The Prochnow Foundation believes a particular stigma exists for high-performing students and professionals with mental illnesses, and there are limited mental health resources specifically focused on these individuals. The Foundation's mission is to serve this population through an annual scholarship fund, college- and career-focused mentoring programs and in-person speaking events. The Foundation's network includes professionals in finance, law, medicine, and counseling, many of whom have experience with mental illnesses.

The Prochnow Foundation for Mental Health's annual scholarship program seeks to reward one high-achieving student with a diagnosed mental illness with a scholarship to a four-year college or full-length trade school. The foundation believes mental health-related scholarships and professional development programs materially lack those provided to other segments of the population, despite 20% of U.S. adolescents living with a diagnosable mental health disorder. The foundation is proud and excited to reduce the financial burden of a high-achiever in pursuit of his or her education, career, and personal development. ## Catching The Dream Program

Throughout the United States, Native American communities suffer from a lack of qualified professionals—teachers, engineers, doctors, communication specialists, business managers, social workers and technicians. Well-paying jobs exist in Indian communities, but few Indians are prepared to fill them. Hospitals, dental clinics, schools, engineering and agricultural projects remain understaffed and seriously unable to meet community needs.

Founded in 1986, Catching the Dream strives to help improve the quality of life in Indian communities through the higher education of Indian people by providing scholarship funds to native college students who demonstrate academic achievement, clearly defined goals, leadership, the determination to succeed, and the desire to return to their communities and help others realize their dreams. The award is offered three times a year. Applicants must be a quarter or more degree Native American and an enrolled member of a federally recognized U.S. tribe, attending college or university full-time and seeking a BA or higher. ## Mica Hammond Fund Education Reimbursement For Special Needs Families

The Mica Hammond Fund Education Reimbursement For Special Needs Families was established to award approximately two $1,000 scholarships annually to needs-based families of children with rare or undiagnosed diseases to help those children or immediate family members attend college/get an education. The myriad challenges related to caring for those with rare and undiagnosed special needs can be both daunting and fulfilling. This applies to the entire family – the child, the parents, and the siblings. The Mica Hammond Fund wants to help ensure they can take advantage of their unique experience being part of these special families, and help others, by helping fund their education.

Selection of award recipients will be based on the merits of the submitted materials. The scholarship can only be used for tuition or similar and will be sent directly to the recipient's college/school account - not directly to the student. Ineligible recipients include Fund members/administrators/selectors and past recipients. For more information or to apply, please visit the scholarship provider's website.

CCPA Native American Scholarship

The CCPA offers a competitive scholarship for one college student to attend an archaeology field school. The scholarship is for a Native American college student who is enrolled in an accredited Anthropology program and the field school should be through a university or college. In lieu of an archaeological field school, the scholarship may be awarded for compensation of costs for similar training or other educational expenses related to archaeological or anthropological studies.

The Colorado Council of Professional Archaeologists (CCPA) is a community of people concerned with the preservation, recovery, and interpretation of Colorado's prehistoric and historic archaeological resources. The CCPA Native American Initiatives Committee (NAIC) strives to foster an atmosphere of cooperation and understanding between the archaeological and Native American communities through a variety of means, including but not limited to professional development of archaeological careers, education and outreach.

Girl Up Sports Fellowship

Girl Up is committed to bridging the gender gap in sports and breaking down barriers everywhere they exist. Supported by partners and donors, the new Girl Up Sports Fellowship honors young leaders' unwavering commitment to making the world a better place for every girl, everywhere. From youth sports teams and professional athletes, to the back-end business of sports, girls and women face discrimination, a lack of access and limited opportunities in sports. Gender inequities are everywhere—limited funding, little media coverage of female athletes and women's sports, and the pervasive body shaming of female athletes, to name just a few.

Girl Up Sports Fellowship awardees will receive $2,500 toward college/university tuition for up to four years. Girl Up welcomes those with all sports interests and backgrounds to apply. It is not necessary to play a collegiate sport to apply, however, you need to have a passion for advancing gender equality in sports. To apply, you should have plans to be involved with sports on your campus in some capacity - either as a sports-related major, as an athlete, or as a sports broadcaster, photographer, coach, equipment manager, etc. With guidance from Girl Up, Sports Fellowship awardees will be required to implement a gender equality sports project on their college/university campus throughout the four-year fellowship. For more information or to apply, please visit the scholarship provider's website.
