Executive Order 12999: Educational Technology: Ensuring Opportunity for All Children in the Next Century

Computers for Learning Executive Order 12999

➢ Promotes the reuse of federal excess computes and peripheral devices among schools and educational non profit organizations

➢ Reduces the landfill disposal of toxic wastes

➢ Maximizes the taxpayer's investment in computer equipment

Stevenson-Wydler Technology Innovation Act

15 USC 3710(i) Research equipment

… the head of any Federal agency or department, may loan, lease, or give research equipment that is excess to the needs of the laboratory, agency, or department to an educational institution or nonprofit organization for the conduct of technical and scientific education and research activities. Title of ownership shall transfer with a gift under this section.

Public, Private Schools and Day Care Centers

- A school is eligible to receive donations through the Computers for Learning program if it is public, private, or parochial, serving pre-kindergarten through grade 12 students. Day care centers must provide a state-approved preschool curriculum

Educational Nonprofit

- An educational nonprofit is eligible if it is classified as tax-exempt under section 501(c) of the United States tax code and serves pre-kindergarten through grade 12 students. In addition, education nonprofit organization must meet ALL of the following criteria to participate in the CFL program:

  - Be tax exempt under section 501(C) of the U.S. tax code

  - Serve some portion of the pre-kindergarten through grade 12 population

  - Operate primarily for the purpose of education

Educational Non-Profits

- By completing the registration form, the organization is attesting that their educational nonprofit organization meets ALL of the eligibility requirements. Any federal agency that selects the educational nonprofit organization for donation will also ask to provide proof of eligibility. (Agencies determine what this should be, so it may vary.)

Welcome to the CFL Website

In order to encourage and promote the reuse of computers, GSA is proud to sponsor the Computers for Learning (CFL) website.

The CFL program evolved as a guide for implementing Executive Order 12999, Educational Technology: Ensuring Opportunity for all Children in the Next Century. The order encourages agencies, to the extent permitted by law, to transfer computers and related peripheral equipment excess to their needs directly to schools and educational nonprofit organizations. The CFL website allows eligible recipients to view and select the computer equipment that federal agencies have reported as excess (via GSAXcess®).

Direct transfers are authorized by law through 15 USC 3710(i), commonly known as the Stevenson-Wydler Technology Innovation Act of 1980.

The CFL program's ambitious goal is to make modern computer technology an integral part of every classroom so that every child has the opportunity to be educated to his or her full potential.

Note: Schools and educational nonprofit organizations do not pay for excess computer equipment they receive through the CFL program, however, the recipient is responsible for the shipping and handling costs, as well as refurbishing costs.

Transferring computers to schools and educational nonprofits extends the useful life of a computer, helps a needy school, and contributes to a cleaner, greener environment.
